Sponsored by Herr Funeral Home

Pageant Rules

1. All contestants must be between the ages of 4 and 6 years old at the time of the contest and must live in Madison, St. Clair, or Monroe counties, the Horseradish Capital of the World. Applicants are accepted on a first come basis. The pageant will take place on Saturday, June 2, 2012, at 4:00 pm at Woodland Park on the permanent concrete stage.
2. Contestants cannot be a current reigning Little Miss or similar titleholder and cannot be a previous Little Miss Horseradish Festival.
3. Rehearsal will be held Wednesday, May 30th at 5:45 pm at Woodland Park on the permanent concrete stage. This is not a dress rehearsal (Casual attire). It is very important that contestants practice for the event and every effort should be made to attend the rehearsal.
4. Contestants will appear in party clothes, or in the case of inclement weather, appropriate attire. They will be asked to state their name, age, and a horseradish fact without prompting. No duplicate facts will be allowed. Facts are first come, first served.
5. Seven finalists will be chosen and asked a question to decide the winner.
6. Little Miss will receive a $100 savings bond, crown, sash, trophy, and flowers. First and Second runners up will receive a $50 savings bond, trophy, and flowers. All contestants will receive a goody bag.
7. This is a fun pageant and judging will not be based on professional pageant rules. Contestants wearing makeup, wigs, or other enhancements will be disqualified. All judges' decisions are final.
8. Little Miss Horseradish Festival will be expected to participate in up to 4 parades during the next year, including the annual Italian Fest parade held in Collinsville in September. She will be responsible for her own transportation and arrangements. She will also be asked back next year to crown the new Little Miss Horseradish Festival.
