Collinsville Area Recreation District,

ADDRESSING THE COMMISSION DURING PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD

Below are the rules as set out in Ordinance No. 12-5 entitled “An Ordinance Adopting Rules for Public Comment during Public Meetings for the Collinsville Area Recreation District”. Interested parties may address the Park Board of Commissioners during the time designated as Public Comment on the regular meeting agenda.

Rule 1: Speakers shall be allowed only during “Public Comment” or at any other time, if requested by a member of the Board of Commissioners.

Rule 2: Input must relate to a matter of the Collinsville Area Recreation District.

Rule 3: Speakers who are residents of the Park District or have direct financial interest in real estate for which the Park District is deciding an issue of purchase or annexation shall be given priority to speak within the allotted public comment time prior to non-residents being recognized. “Resident” is defined as an individual who lives in the Collinsville Area Recreation District or is a property owner who pays taxes to the Collinsville Area Recreation District.

Rule 4: Prior to the meeting, any individual wishing to address the Board during “Public Comment” shall sign in at the Recording Secretary’s table. Speakers will be called to the podium in the order of sign in, and according to priority guidelines outlined under Rule 3. Each speaker shall state his or her name and address prior to sharing their public comment.

Rule 5: All comments must be made from the podium. Speakers must remain at the podium during their remarks. Each speaker’s remarks will be limited to no more than four (4) minutes. No extensions will be granted and no time compensated to the speaker resulting from interruptions by or discussion with the Board of Commissioners, Park District Attorney, or any other District employee. The public comment portion of each Board meeting shall be 30 minutes in length, unless otherwise agreed upon by a majority of the Board of Commissioners. No accumulative limit will be placed on public input during a “Public Hearing”, unless agreed upon by a majority of the Board of Commissioners.

Rule 6: Speakers shall address only the Park Board collectively or its members individually. Comments must relate to Park District issues only, and shall not include personal attacks on District appointed officials and employees.

Rule 7: Speakers shall act and speak with respect and conform to conventional social manners in speech, writing, dress, and behavior. A speaker’s time may be immediately terminated at the Board President’s discretion if he or she is in violation of these rules or inciting the audience to be disruptive. Permission to speak may be denied or terminated if remarks are not in compliance with these rules. The audience shall refrain from conduct that disrupts the meeting in any way such as clapping, booing, loud talking or outbursts. Any person who persists in violating these rules is subject to removal from the meeting/hearing and subject to arrest.

Rule 8: Speakers shall not be allowed to advertise, solicit, request, urge or summon the Park Board or the general public, except as otherwise permitted herein, with regard to any product, goods, services, information, gains, losses, advantages, consequences, or any other similar matter, notwithstanding that there may or may not be any monetary, financial, or property gain, loss, or benefit to the speaker or any other person or entity.
